The tennis tournament offered the novel exhibition of a young woman, Madamoiselle Maison, because of her prowess being entered in the men's event and capturing the trophy, defeating Mr. H. Winthrop in the finals in straight sets. This was followed by a match between the Engadine and Maloja Golf Clubs, an annual event, which always arouses great interest. The points were halved, the score showing four all. The Engadine's short season has about ended, but many are remaining, unwilling to depart until the cold weather.

All who have been here will remember

All who have been here will remember last week as one of the most brilliant and amusing on record.

Firstly, Gae weather was ideal, not a day's rain in the whole week.

The presence of the Grand Duke, of Baden has been a great feature, while the presence of Prince Max Egon you rurstensberg, who has come here for the first time in years, has added much to the success of the week, for he is the soul of gayety and good fellowship, while the Princess you Furstenberg is the most popular of women.

There have been more visitors here this year than for a long time, more automobiles, more pretty women, more dances, more sunshine than for ten years
